

The successful Inku tableware line of leading chef Sergio Herman has been extended with a delightful knife set and a beautiful little glass carafe. The designs were once more inspired by his beloved Japan. The small carafes, intended as milk jugs alongside an Inku sugar bowl, come in pairs in a lovely gift box. The user is of course free to put this carafe to another use, to pour wine or, why not, as a vase, for example.

SERGIO HERMAN

About Sergio Herman Sergio started his career in the family-owned restaurant Oud Sluis in Sluis, The Netherlands where he worked for 25 years. Since 2005, he has held three Michelin stars and was listed in the Top 50 of The World's 50 Best Restaurants for eight years. Irrespective of this success, Sergio made the decision to close the doors of Oud Sluis in December 2013, so he could apply himself to new projects. Today, Sergio has four restaurants. Le Prinstine* in Antwerp, Belgium, Pure C***, AllRepublic* and Blueness in Cadzand-Bad, The Netherlands & Antwerp, Belgium. Besides this, he has taken on the culinary responsibility for the French fries concept Frites Atelier. He also has published several cookbooks of which the latest 'New Italian'.
